Sub: Online Grievance Petition of Ms. Swadesh Srivastava, Ajmer regarding pension.

Sir,

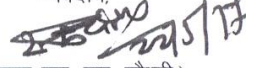

Kindly refer to your letter No.R-11011/3/DPG/2017/Conf.I dated 09.05.2017 on the above mentioned subject.

The case of Smt. Swadesh Srivastava for grant of family pension is reviewed. It is understood that Smt. Kamala Srivastava did not declare Smt. Swadesh Srivastava as her daughter at the time of settlement of her pension case. Smt. Swadesh Srivastava has failed to substantiate the connection between her and Smt. Kamala Srivastava. The copy of ration card submitted by Smt. Swadesh Srivastava did not corroborate her relationship without doubt. Further, she could not substantiate her income certificate nor submitted any succession certificate issued by competent court of law. From the decree of divorce accorded to her, it is understood that a male child stays with her. Also, she could not furnish no claim certificate from all the other children of late Smt. Kamala Srivastava. Under these circumstances it is very difficult to come to conclusion that Smt. Swadesh Srivastava is solely dependant on Smt. Kamal Srivastava even if it is established beyond doubt that the claimant is the daughter of Smt. Kamal Srivastava.

In view of the difficulties explained above, it would be difficult to process the family pension case of Smt. Swadesh Srivastava at this juncture. However, her case can be examined and processed once she submits proper documents showing her relationship with deceased employee as well as the claimant's sole dependency on Smt. Kamal Srivastava.

Smt. Swadesh Srivastava may please be informed suitably.
